Re: In re PURDUE PHARMA, L.P., et al.

Case No. 19-23649(RDD)

United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York

Dear Team Members or Staffs'

On January 13, 2021 you received from me hands delivered information related to my creditor assigned claim number 89590 .

Also, I have sent Purdue Pharma, L.P. Processing Center, Priority Mail on 01/02/2021, which was never pickup from the United States Post Office under USPS Tracking No. 9510 8162 2097 1009 4548 63 which was forward to Prime Clerk, LLC 850 Third Avenue, Suite 412, Brooklyn, New York, 11232.

You should have received this priority mail by now but for some strange reason it haven't been pickup from the post office and the information I'm receiving form the USPS Tracking site the mail was not pickup.

*The attachments are the validity of my claims and the unlawful collection of debt, contrary to 18 U.S.C. § 1201 and New Jersey Criminal Code N.J.S.A. 2C:13-1

P.S.* Maureen Bull, et al., they needs to stop their unadulterated drivel of falsifying information of violence and The accusation abusive behavior of me to use as a political shield for New Jersey Attorney General Office and the federal and state court criminal investigation of the Secretary of Homeland Security, et al.

*The Bankruptcy Code provides an incredibly broad definition of "claim," which includes a "right to payment whether or not such right is reduced to judgment, liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, legal, equitable, secured, or unsecured." 11 U.S.C. § 101(5). The broad definition of "claim" is intentionally broad. 11 U.S.C. § 101(5) and 1978 Legislative History ("By this broadest possible definition . . . , the bill contemplates that all legal obligations of the debtor, no matter how remote or contingent, will be able to be dealt with in the bankruptcy case." H.R. Rep. No. 595, 95th Cong., 1st Sess. 309 (1977), S. Rep. No. 989, 95th Cong., 2d Sess. 21-22 (1978), as reprinted in 1978 U.S.C.C.A.N. 5787 at 5807-08 and 6266).

The Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA) was enacted in 1977 due to “abundant evidence of the use of abusive, deceptive, and unfair debt collection practices by many debt collectors [that] contribute to the number of personal bankruptcies . . .” 15 U.S.C. § 1692(a). Congress made its purpose in enacting the FDCPA explicit: “to eliminate abusive debt collection practices by debt collectors, to insure that those debt collectors who refrain from using abusive debt collection practices are not competitively disadvantaged, and to promote consistent State action to protect consumers against debt collection abuses.” Owen v. I.C. Sys., Inc., 629 F.3d 1263, 1270 (11th Cir. 2011) (quoting 15 U.S.C. § 1692(e)).”, Quoting from the U.S. Supreme Court.
